

1st ACCORD WITH INDUSTRY: *Exploring points of mutual interest to globalize and expedite knowledge on rare diseases and orphan medicinal products

11.00-11.15 Welcome and Introduction

- Désirée Gavhed, ICORD Secretariat, Karolinska Institutet, Sweden
- Emilio Roldán, SLADIMER, Argentina

11.15-11.45 Presentation of ICORD

- Virginia Llera, ICORD President, Argentina
- Jan-Inge Henter, Past ICORD President; Director of Research and Education at Karolinska University Hospital; Professor at Karolinska Institutet, Sweden

11.45-12.45 LUNCH

12.45-13.30 Initiatives at Karolinska University Hospital & Karolinska Institutet (Jan-Inge Henter)

- An example of how research on a rare disease can affect treatment of common diseases
- Local rare disease initiatives in Stockholm
- Karolinska University Hospital: The present and the future

13.30-14.30 Prices and access to orphan medicinal products

- Estimating the budget impact of Orphan Drugs in Sweden and France 2013-2020 (Karolina Antonov, LIF - the research-based pharmaceutical industry in Sweden, Sweden)
- Orphan drugs - Challenges of market access (Laura Gutierrez, Celgene, Belgium)
- Price formulas and access in less developed regions (Emilio Roldán, SLADIMER, Argentina)

14.30-15.00 Coffee Break

15.00-16.45 Open discussion

- Exploring points of mutual interest between Industry and ICORD
Moderator: Anders Ekblom, Board Member, Karolinska University Hospital; Former CEO AstraZeneca Sweden AB; Former Executive Vice President Global Drug Development, AstraZeneca, Sweden

16.45-17.00 Closure (Virginia Llera)

17.00-18.00 Mingling and Informal meeting